whole home experience

trend[®]

is one of our most diverse and dynamic brands within the Fabricut Inc. family.

With new products added into our lines all the time, we strive to be the whole home solution for designers everywhere. Trend's affordable price range aids designers and workrooms in accommodating the more value-conscious project without compromising function and form. Ranging from contemporary to traditional and every style in between, Trend is your resource for fabrics, trimmings, drapery hardware, and wallcoverings at an exceptional value.

From the window to the wall, Trend is the to-the-trade brand our design customers can always count on.

jaclyn smith

A fashion and home trend setter that always makes beautiful things affordable. Jaclyn works alongside Trend's design team developing a beautiful collection of fabrics, trimmings, and wallcoverings while keeping Jaclyn's vision and design taste in mind. The success of Jaclyn Smith Home is built on her personal philosophy: offering high-end looks at affordable pricing without compromising style.

vern yip

Vern's extraordinary technique, dynamic personality, and sophisticated style have made him a nationally acclaimed interior designer, columnist, and TV superstar. Most known for his TLC show Trading Spaces and his columns in both HGTV Magazine and The Washington Post, Vern provides invaluable insight into creating environments that are simultaneously beautiful and functional while being affordable. Vern Yip's global aesthetic, paired with his precise and clean lines, sets him apart as a leading trendsetter.

fabrics

Trend strives to meet the needs of our designers while still maintaining the level of value our brand built its reputation on. Trend combines the most relevant patterns, color palettes and materials into collections that are easy to love. Whether its sheers, prints, embroidery, wovens, or upholstery, Trend's fabric selection of over 10,000 options is sure to meet the needs of a more accessible price point.

wallcoverings

The newest addition to Trend's whole-home solution is our wallcovering with collections by Vern Yip and Jaclyn Smith. Through these partnerships, we offer wallcovering options that align with our existing fabric collections and are the perfect complement to an interior space. These two wallcovering collections for Trend are comprised of dynamic color palettes, elevated geometrics and engaging patterns.
